

Chapter 10

Fantastic! We have the sacred scroll. Let's read it.

OK. Let's go to the slaves' room and read the scroll carefully.

Amiris and Katie walked quietly back to the slaves' room. All the slaves were sleeping. Amiris and Katie sat down on the hard floor. Then Amiris lit a candle, and opened the scroll. Katie couldn't read the sacred scroll, because it wasn't in English. On the scroll there were small pictures of birds, people and camels.

"What are all these pictures?" Katie asked.

"These are our words," said Amiris. "This is how we read and write in Egypt."

The sacred scroll was very long. Amiris tried to find the correct part.

Which scroll did Katie see?

Fantastic
נפלא / رائع

lit a candle
הדליק נר / أَوْلَع شَمْعَة

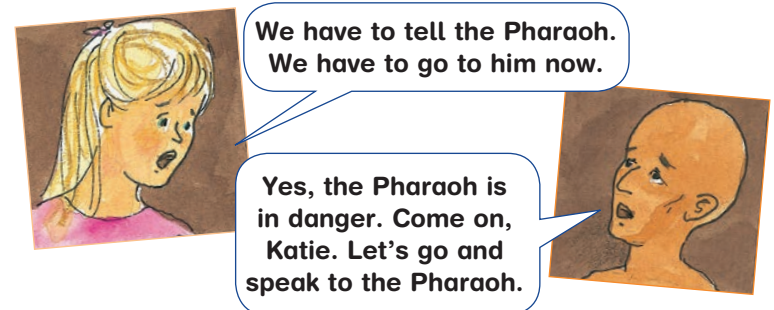

Here it is!

What?

Here's the correct part. Look! It says that the Wise Sage is trying to kill the Pharaoh.

Please read that part to me.

Amiris read. "It says, 'The Pharaoh has to be careful. Someone is trying to kill him. The Wise Sage said that a girl is trying to kill the Pharaoh, but this isn't true. The Wise Sage wants to kill the Pharaoh, so he put poison in the Pharaoh's wine.'"

We have to tell the Pharaoh. We have to go to him now.

Yes, the Pharaoh is in danger. Come on, Katie. Let's go and speak to the Pharaoh.

poison
רעל / سم