MOVIE review

Fly Away Home

Fly Away Home is a beautiful movie. It is based on a true story.

Amy lives with her mother in New Zealand. When Amy is 12, her mother dies and Amy goes to Canada to live with her father.

At first, Amy is sad and very lonely. Then one summer day, she finds some baby geese. The geese don't have a mother, so Amy takes care of them. Amy isn't lonely anymore.

But then summer is over, and the geese must fly south before the winter. But Amy's geese need help flying. Amy's father has a crazy idea: He and Amy can fly south in two small airplanes, and the geese can fly after them!

The journey is dangerous, but it brings Amy and her father closer together. Near the end of their journey, Amy's father's plane crashes and he hurts his shoulder.

This movie is sad, but it makes you smile.

Treasure in the Sea

In 1681, a Spanish ship was on its way to South America. There was treasure on the ship. Pirates attacked the ship near an island in Ecuador. The Spanish sailors on the ship didn't want the pirates to get the treasure, so they burned their ship. The ship sank with the treasure.

The pirates were very angry and they cut off the sailors' heads. Then they told a man from the island to find the treasure and the sharks ate him. After that, nobody wanted to try.

In the 1990s, two brothers were on the beach on the island. Suddenly, they saw the treasure in the water.

Joel Ruth, a treasure hunter, heard about the brothers' discovery. He looked for the treasure, but he didn't find it. He asked divers to help him. They went into the water and found the Spanish ship and the treasure.

Inside a Whale

James Bartley was an English sailor. One day, a sailor on James's ship saw a very big whale. The ship chased the whale and the sailors shot it. The whale was hurt. It hit the ship with its tail. James fell off the ship and disappeared into the water. Everyone thought he was dead.

After a few hours, the whale died. The sailors pulled it onto the ship. They cut it open. Suddenly, they saw a shoe. Then they saw a leg ... and another leg. They discovered James Bartley inside the whale's stomach! James's eyes were closed and he was very white, but he was alive! It was amazing!

James opened his eyes and screamed. He was very sick and it took him a long time to get better. James returned home, but he never sailed on a ship again.
